NARRATIVE:

Andrew Mejia is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include an ammunition possession violation, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, terrorist threats, vehicle theft, multiple convictions for resisting arrest and vandalism. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for an ammunition violation. Mejia was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 11, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Mejia qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for an ammunition possession violation is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
